Sainte Foy de Longas

Walk 9

Distance - Nearly 8km (5 miles) 2 hours Map: Institut Géographique National, Série Bleu, 19360, Lalinde, 1:25,000.

A circuit through two valleys and the adjacent hills, a varied landscape with woodlands as well as modern agriculture. Several descends and rises but none of them difficult. Mainly broad tracks, some small roads and paths. Sainte Foy de Longas is a tiny village, not much more than some houses arranged around the church and the mairie near the Louyre stream.

Start/car parking - Behind the church. From Constant, Sainte Foy de Longas is reached by driving Eastwards along the D32.

Refreshments - Take a picnic

Note: It would be a great help to future walkers if you could record any inaccuracies you come across during this walk and report them to reception so that appropriate amendments can be made. Thank you for your help.

Happy walking.

WALK

Behind the church, go down and turn left immediately, following the small road Westwards below the wall and joining the D32. Cross it after 20m and follow the sign 'La Placette', a small road going uphill. Follow it for about 700m, then 30m before joining a larger road turn right into a path that soon bends left into woodland following the edge of a field. Go straight on, ignoring other paths, through a more open area with lower bushes and then between fields towards a small cross on a roadside.

1. Here turn right towards La Pique farm. After the last farm building, turn left into a broad track towards a group of other farm buildings. Just before them, turn right, slowly descending along the edge of a field.
3. On arrival on a main track turn right. Soon this road bears left, so you are going mainly in the same direction. Just after a large new house, the first of Camberoux, take a smaller, grassy, track to your right. Follow it when before the next house it bears left. After 70m, on arrival on a very small road, turn right and go on for about 100m.

4. Then, just before a wooden fence, turn left into a path. This is at first grassy, then stony, and it goes between walls of stones. At its end, turn left into a broad track towards the D32 road. Cross it and follow the road you see in front of you, 20m to the left. It crosses the Louyre stream and goes uphill to the hamlet of Les Grèzes.

5. After a big hedge and just before an iron cross turn right. The hardtop soon becomes a path that bears rights descending in a small valley and then towards the Louyre valley. Walk between fields towards the stream. At a picnic table, turn right, cross the stone bridge and return to the church.
